empower young people to understand their world, develop leadership and civic responsibility, build lasting friendships across cultures, and cultivate the skills and motivation to make a difference in their communities.

An exciting scholarship opportunity for an intercultural, youth leadership exchange program in Summer 2015

Key Program Components

Participants will focus on the program themes of: civic education, leadership and community service through the lens of: entrepreneurial approaches to business, education, healthcare, environmental protection and technology. The group will participate in the following activities: site meetings, experiential learning activities, leadership trainings, civic participation at the community level, mentoring by community, business and NGO leaders, and volunteer programs.

Program Schedule

August 5th, 6th & 7th 2015

The program will bring 16 girls from Japan and South Korea (8 from each country) to Tahoe, NV where they will be joined by 6 girls from the local Tahoe Community. Daily activities will run from approximately 8:30am to 9pm.

As much as I learned about Iraq, I learned equally as much about America, and more importantly I learned about myself... Iraqi Young Leaders Exchange Program (IYLEP) was a life changing experience for me.
